

ALVARO LABON VEGA

WINE EDUCATOR

Alvaro was born and raised in Malaga, Spain. His interests lead him to study and work in a broad variety of fields; economics, accounting and then culinary arts. After having lived in three continents, he and his wife have made their home in Napa, where they enjoy the outdoors, cooking and, of course, wine! Alvaro's passion for wine lead him to Pina in April 2008, where he feels very fortunate to be fulfilling his dreams of learning and appreciating wine and the wine industry.
